GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS KEYNE TO VOLUNTEERISM AND COMMUNITY SERVICE COMMISSION

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Lisa Keyne of Gibsonville to the North Carolina Commission on Volunteerism and Community Service.

Keyne is executive director of the North Carolina Campus Compact. She is a member of Leadership North Carolina's 15th class. Keyne received a Bachelor's degree in education and Christian education from Concordia University in St. Paul, Minn., and received a Master's degree in public administration from the University of Alabama in Birmingham. She received a doctorate in higher and postsecondary education from the University of Southern California in Los Angeles.

The commission advises and assists in the development of a comprehensive statewide service plan for promoting volunteer involvement and citizen participation in North Carolina. The commission also encourages service in community and state problem-solving and works to promote and support voluntary citizen involvement in government and private programs. The commission has 25 members, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints all members.
